

Journal for Courage Shafi Dayatar

This week was one of the best week for our team. Not only every has courage to talk, but also shows courage to take action. I think this week was one of the most productive week for our team. We had couple of meetings this week and they are as follows:

- 1) Sprint Planning.
- 2) Sprint Review.
- 3) We had daily sprint update meeting.

We did our daily sprint meeting asynchronously, as we weren't able to match up a time together. So every posted there updates on whatsapp group and Project owner update(Swathi for this Week) updated the Burndown chart for this week.

Oh yeah, As for the sprint , we have sprint cycle which lasts for 1 week. And we have planned our sprint planning meeting to be held on Saturday before class. Not only that we also have project review meeting which will be held on every Tuesday from 1:00PM to 2:00PM, and in this meeting we would review our sprint working during the past week. We have planned our sprint retrospective meeting to be held every two weeks.

As we have five sprint weeks so we divided sprint role in everyone as follows:

Everyone has a chance for becoming a product owner and Every week one of our team member change his/her role. And it is followed in this sequence:

Swathi/Shafi/Navineet/Amit/Audeep.

Not only that we have scrum master role and every member gets a chance to become a scrum master. And this is followed in this sequence : Shafi/Navineet/Amit/Audeep/Swathi.

Our team is showing courage as usually. Kudos to my team!!!
